Here's What the Plasterers Think of ROCK PLASTER.

WE THE UNDERSIGNED, contracting plasterers, after much experience and observation, take pleasure in testifying to the practical character of ROCK PLASTER, and while it will remove a not inconsiderable amount of business, namely that of patching, we advocate its use, as it enables us to do work and guarantee the results, and enables us to carry on our trade at all seasons of the year, and modernizes that part of building enterprise which has undergone practically no improvement in the last two thousand years, placing the business of the plasterer on the same footing as that occupied by the other trades through the advent of machinery and improved methods.

THE EYE OF BATTLE.

Far-Reaching Possibilities Awaiting Upon the Result.

SENATORS AND REPRESENTATIVES

Whose Terms Expire and the Political Complexion of Whose Successors Depends Upon State Elections—The Alliance as a Factor.

New York, Nov. 7.—The legislatures of twenty-two states whose members will be chosen to-morrow will have the selection of successors to fourteen republican and eight democratic senators, whose terms expire March 3, 1921. The republican senators who go out are: Nelson, California; Hawley, Connecticut; Davis, Massachusetts; Stone, Michigan; Michigan, Michigan; Sanderson, Montana; Padlock, Nebraska; Stewart, Nevada; Hiseock, New York; Casey, North Dakota; Quay, Pennsylvania; Allen, Washington; Sawyer, Wisconsin; and Warren, Wyoming.

The democrats are: Gray, Delaware; Pucko, Florida; Turpie, Indiana; Coddell, Missouri; Blodgett, Illinois; and Bate, Tennessee; Faulkner, West Virginia; and Mills, of Texas.

Of the republican senators whose terms expire, Hawley, Stockbridge, Padlock, Sawyer, Hiseock, Allen and Sawyer represent states which are claimed by both sides.

Of the democrats Gray, Turpie, Coddell, Blodgett, Bate, and Faulkner are from states similarly situated.

The expectations of the Farmers' Alliance, if they are well founded, place the seats of several other senators in jeopardy, and the complexion of the next senate may undergo a considerable change as a result of Tuesday's election.

The republicans look to retaining the senate, whatever the presidential result may be, as a bulwark against the legislature. The democrats are planning to increase their representation in the upper house and the Farmers' Alliance are scheming to secure the balance of power.

The democrats claim that they will get the legislature, which will return senators in place of all democratic senators whose terms expire, and also in place of the republican senators of New York, Connecticut, Michigan and Wisconsin, and the Farmers' Alliance expect to capture senatorships in Nevada, Nebraska and Washington. This would make a loss of one of the seven republican United States senators, and would make the upper house stand Democrats, 47; republicans, 32; Farmers' Alliance, 5.

This would practically give the Farmers' Alliance the balance of power in the senate, as they could, by voting with the democrats, give them a working majority of one. The republicans, however, do not consider the loss of any of the seven senatorships. They admit that these states will be close so far as the legislative vote is concerned, but claim their chances of winning.

This state is better than that of the democrats. They are particularly confident of the result in Connecticut, Nebraska, Michigan and Wisconsin, and they are reaching out in other states after democratic senatorships. This is particularly true of Delaware and West Virginia. In the former state Senator Higgins is confident of the election of a republican colleague in place of Senator Gray.

In West Virginia Stephen B. Elkins has made a personal canvass upon which he presides to the election of a republican colleague in place of Senator Higgins. The republicans are also confident of gaining a senatorship in Indiana.

In New York the redistricting of the state by the democrats has resulted in an advantage which may give them the choice of Senator Hiseock's successor, even if the state is carried for Harrison.

The republicans admit that the Farmers' Alliance will gain the Nevada senatorship, but say they are chasing rainbows when they claim Nebraska, Washington, Wyoming and Montana.

Taken altogether there will be some twenty figures on the status of the three parties in the senate when the votes are counted to-morrow night.

THE VOTE IN NEW YORK.

A Comprehensive Review of the Situation on the Eve of Battle.

New York, Nov. 7.—The republicans at state headquarters have gone carefully over this state by counties and have figured the result down to fine that Chairman Hiseock predicts a plurality of 18,000 for Harrison. On the other hand a tabulated statement of the estimated result in the sixty counties prepared by democratic statisticians gives Cleveland a plurality of 25,350. Between these two estimates the truth lies.

Betting men have given odds on Cleveland in this state for two weeks, and more money has been put up than in any previous election. Whether the betting is to be relied upon as an indication of the way the result will go, is a question.

Republicans have had absolute faith in their ability to carry this state until Saturday. Then they showed signs of wavering, and turned their attention to Indiana and Connecticut, believing that Cleveland could win even if he carried New York state.

The republicans and the democrats are both likely to be disappointed in one respect in this state. The democrats will not poll as large a vote as they expect in this city and Brooklyn and on Staten Island, and the republicans can vote up the state not nearly as large as is expected. The democrats are confident that Tammany will not carry the city by over 65,000 votes, although the safe talk of having 70,000 plurality. All talk of Hill democratic leaning Cleveland has died out, but

It is expected that many New Yorkers who usually vote the democratic ticket do not desire a change in the administration, and in the absence of party enthusiasm will remain at home on election day. In 1888 Harrison came down to the Harlem river with a plurality of 95,464, and republicans say he will not have less than 90,000 this year. To meet this vote the democrats must have over 70,000 plurality in this city, as Kings, Queens and Richmond are not counted upon for more than 19,000 by the most sanguine democrats.

Republicans, therefore, base their hopes of success in this state on the belief that Tammany cannot obtain a plurality of 70,000 votes. That there are grave doubts as to the ability of the republicans to poll the vote they have done in other years up the state.

Correspondents of the United Press state that republican counties say that the full republican vote will not be polled. In some of the interior counties the Farmers' Alliance has made great progress among the farmers, and the three-cornered contest on assemblymen and local officers which will detract from the vote for republican electors. The democrats have made big gains in Buffalo and Albany, but will lose nearly 1,000 votes in Albany owing to local strife.

As this will be the first time the Australian ballot will be tried through the republican court by district judges, as the democratic cities tried it last year, the advantage will be with the democrats, and they expect this factor alone will reduce the republican vote two or three per cent.

Having all these things together the situation in this state is considered by impartial observers to be a little more favorable to the democrats than to the republicans. The democrats will have the state legislature safely, and will have the naming of Senator Hiseock's successor. Of the thirty-four congressmen the democrats have a fair prospect of carrying twenty, while fourteen are surely republican.

NO TROUBLE ANTICIPATED.

Acting Attorney-General Aldrich interviewed as to His Late Circular.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—An interview with a representative of the United Press last night Acting Attorney-General Aldrich said in regard to the circular recently issued by him that he did not anticipate any trouble or conflict between the federal and state officers in the enforcement of the election laws next Tuesday.

The United States officials and New York officials are doing anything to provoke a controversy, and he had no doubt that state officers had received similar instructions.

"But what about the republicans going into the booth?" was asked Mr. Aldrich.

Mr. Aldrich—They are not expected to do so unless necessary in order to do justice to the voters of the United States. They have the right to go anywhere about the polls or ballot boxes in the discharge of duty, but they should not do anything to provoke a controversy, and he had no doubt that state officers had received similar instructions.

followed by a unruly mob of populists and democratic toughs who, from jeering and hooting, finally came to throwing eggs and stones. J. W. Eastman, chairman of the county committee, was severely injured. The parade was broken up by the police. Capt. M. B. Wilcox was struck in the back of the head with a large stone and was seriously injured. The parade finally turned on the mob, and two or three of the ring-leaders were roughly handled and beaten with torches, after which they dispersed.

A Political Murder.

VEVAY, Ind., Nov. 7.—Excitement runs high here over the hooding and killing of Oscar Loop, Saturday night, by a crowd of negroes who live in Ghent, Ky., but were here attending a republican rally. Coroner Shlansons held an inquest yesterday afternoon, and a verdict of premeditated and malicious killing, and the following negroes are charged with the deed: Marshall Davis, John Sander, Robert School, and Albert Loop, of Ghent, Ky.; Perry Andrews and Ruben Jones of Vevay.

All of the above have been arrested and are in jail here except Marshall Davis, who is being held in Kentucky. The mob threatened to bombard the jail, and the sheriff, who is a republican, sent a messenger to Madison Saturday night to prevent the mob from attacking the jail.

A HORRIBLE FIND.

Four White Men Killed and Their Bodies Mutilated by Kakt Indians.

TACOMA, Wash., Nov. 9.—The steamer Chitina arrived here yesterday from Alaska. She left Port Wrangle October 29, and while there it was learned that four white men had been found in the camp at Fort Dairy, Kupreof Island, with their heads cut off and their clothing stripped from their bodies. The crime was supposed to have been committed by Kakt Indians as an outcome of the Edwards trouble last year, when John Edwards, a miner and explorer, was killed by the natives, who claimed he had not the better of them in some trivial matter. Edwards' friends drove the slayers out of that section of the country, and ever since the Indians have vowed vengeance. It is believed that they executed their purpose the first time a small body of white men was found alone.

The bodies of the murdered men were horribly mutilated and could not be identified. In two instances the heads had been stuck on posts near by, and the flesh had been picked off by crows. The murdered men were miners.

CHICAGO, Ill., Nov. 7.—As a result of a misunderstanding in regard to the ownership of some property Anton M. Fougnot, an attorney, was shot and instantly killed, Saturday morning, in his home at Rogers Park, a suburb of this city, by James Dalton, a manufacturer of piano covers. Both men were unmarried and lived in the same house, each having contributed towards furnishing the home. Dalton claims that Fougnot made it unpleasant for him, and that the shooting was done in self-defense.

PROV. VANDERBILT has moved to the Syndicate Block. He invites all who want to read human nature and understand mind in children, domestic character for professional and business success, to a free illustrated lecture at 7:30 o'clock this evening—Room 22.

Rev. Towner preached two good sermons yesterday. The subject for the morning was "A Question Asked 1800 Years Ago, but as Pertinent to-day as Then," namely, "What must I do that I may work the works of righteousness?"

The topic for the evening was "The Christian's Duty, or Are You Following the Standard of Truth?" Both sermons were full of practical and helpful suggestions.

At the close of the morning service the ordinance of the Lord's supper was observed and the new members were welcomed into the church.

Band Music and Trouble.

The great Gilmore Band of 100 members arrived in Decatur Sunday morning and gave a sacred concert at the Grand at 2 p. m., in the presence of a small audience, owing perhaps to the inclement weather and what were considered high prices. The director was Col. D. W. Reeves, who is a worthy successor of the great band-master, but the concert lacked the charm of the press and personality of the only Gilmore. A superior programme was rendered and every member was rapturously applauded.

The manager of the band got into trouble after the performance. It appears that before Gilmore died Agent Lane came to Decatur and made a conditional contract to send the 100 members of the band the Hotel Long for dinner at a certain rate. Gilmore's death caused a change of agents and plans. The musicians pay their own way and when they came to Decatur 50 went to the St. Nicholas, only four to the Hotel Long, and the others to different hotels.

Mr. Long had made preparations for the 100 and was disappointed. He made a kick, and securing Attorney J. J. Finn and Deputy Sheriff Mickel, he attached all of the baggage at the depot. Attorney Gray represented the band manager and after considerable parleying Loug was paid $80, which including the costs amounted to $33.76. The band manager could not afford to stay in Decatur to fight the case, and he wisely got out of the difficulty with as little expense as possible.

Lot Webber Explains.

Speaking of Mr. Fahmeyer's determination to vote the Republican ticket, the Decatur Review says Fahmeyer is especially friendly to the Republican candidate for state attorney, and mentions that Mr. L. E. Mills may have been holding back a certain criminal case against Fahmeyer for infringing on the union cigar label. This is a mean attack on Mr. Mills for the purpose of prejudicing cigar makers against him. It is a special duty work in the interest of Webber.

Now, since this mean insinuation has been made against Mills, let Mr. A. G. Webber explain why he went to Mr. Fahmeyer and tried to convince him that he ought to vote for him (Webber) by stating to Fahmeyer that if he (Fahmeyer) would come to his office he would convince him that the Republicans, instead of the Democrats, passed the law making it a crime to infringe on the union label, and that, as the Republicans made the law, they, and not the Democrats, were to blame for the trouble he had been put to for that infringement. In Mr. Webber's opinion, the law, or was he trying to deceive Fahmeyer? In other words, is Mr. Webber carrying two faces in order to get votes, in this matter as he has been doing in other directions?

Far-Reaching Possibilities Awaiting Upon the Result.

SENATORS AND REPRESENTATIVES

Whose Terms Expire and the Political Complexion of Whose Successors Depends Upon State Elections—The Alliance as a Factor.

New York, Nov. 7.—The legislatures of twenty-two states whose members will be chosen to-morrow will have the selection of successors to fourteen republican and eight democratic senators, whose terms expire March 3, 1893. The republican senators who go out are: Felton, Massachusetts; Stockbridge, Michigan; Davis, Minnesota; Sanderson, Montana; Taddock, Nebraska; Stewart, Nevada; Hiscok, New York; Casey, North Dakota; Quay, Pennsylvania; Allen, Washington; Sawyer, Wisconsin; and Warren, Wyoming.

The democrats are: Gray, Delaware; Pasco, Florida; Turpie, Indiana; Cockerell, Missouri; Blodgett, New Jersey; Dab, Tennessee; Faulkner, West Virginia; and Mills, of Texas.

Of the republican senators whose terms expire, Hawley, Stockbridge, Taddock, Stewart, Hiscok, Allen and Sawyer represent states which are claimed by both sides.

Of the democrats Gray, Turpie and Cockerell are from states similarly situated. The expectations of the Farmers' Alliance, if they are well founded, place the seats of several other senators in jeopardy, and the complexion of the next senate may undergo a considerable change as a result of Tuesday's election. The republicans look to retaining the senate, whatever the presidential result may be, as a bulwark against tariff legislation. The democrats are planning to increase their representation in the upper house and the Farmers' Alliance are relying to secure the balance of power.

The democrats claim that they will get the legislature, which will return senators in place of all democratic senators whose terms expire, and also in place of the republicans in New York, Connecticut, Michigan and Wisconsin, and the Farmers' Alliance expect to capture senators in Nevada, Nebraska and Washington. This would mean a loss to the republicans of seven United States senators, and would make the upper house stand Democrats, 43; republicans, 19; Farmers' Alliance, 5.

This would practically give the Farmers' Alliance the balance of power in the senate, as they could, by voting with the democrats, give them a working majority of one. The republican leaders, however, do not concede the loss of any of the seven senatorships. They admit that these states will be close so far as the legislative vote is concerned, but claim their chances of winning in these states is better than that of the democrats. They are particularly confident of the result in Connecticut, Nebraska, Michigan and Wisconsin, and they are reaching out in other states after democratic senatorships. This is particularly true of Delaware and West Virginia. In the former state Senator Higgins is confident of the election of a republican colleague in place of Senator Gray.

In West Virginia Stephen B. Elkins has made a personal canvass upon which he predicts the election of a republican legislator as well as the Harrison electors. This would result in a republican stepping into the shoes of Senator Faulkner. The republicans are also confident of gaining a senatorship in Indiana.

In New York the redistricting of the state by the democrats has resulted in an advantage which may give them the choice of Senator Hiscok's successor, even if the state is carried for Harrison. The republicans admit that the Farmers' Alliance will gain the Nevada senatorship, but say they are chasing rainbows when they claim Nebraska, Washington, Wyoming and Montana. Taken altogether there will be some lively fighting on the status of the nine parties in the senate when the votes are counted to-morrow night.

THE VOTE IN NEW YORK.

A Comprehensive Review of the Situation on the Eve of Battle.

New York, Nov. 7.—The republicans at state headquarters have been carefully over this state by counties and have figured the result down so fine that Chairman Hackett predicts a plurality of 18,700 for Harrison. On the other hand a tabulated statement of the estimated result of the sixty counties preyed by democratic statisticians gives Cleveland a plurality of $2,350. Between these two estimates the truth lies.

Betting men have given odds on Cleveland in this state of two to one, although the money has been put up upon no previous election. Whether the betting is to be relied upon as an indication of the way the result will go, is a question.

Republicans have had absolute faith in their ability to carry this state until Saturday. Then they showed signs of wavering, and turned their attention to Indiana and Connecticut, declaring that Cleveland could not win even if he carried New York state.

It is expected that many New Yorkers who usually vote the democratic ticket do not desire a change in the administration, and in the absence of party enthusiasm will remain at home on election day. In 1888 Harrison came down to the Harlem river with a plurality of 85,464, and republicans say he will not have less than 90,000 this year. To meet this vote democrats must have over 70,000 plurality in this city, as Kings, Queens and Richmond are not counted upon for more than 10,000 by the most sanguine democrats.

Republicans, therefore, base their hopes of success in this state on the belief that Tammany cannot obtain a plurality of 70,000 votes. But there are grave doubts as to the ability of the republicans to poll the vote they have done in other years up to the state.

Correspondents of the United Press strong republican counties say that the full republican vote will not be polled. In some of the interior counties the Farmers' Alliance has made great progress among the farmers, and there are three-cornered contests on the edge of the Hudson river, which will detract from the vote for republican electors. The democrats have made big gains in Buffalo and Erie county, but will lose nearly 1,000 votes in Albany owing to local strife.

In this time the Australian ballot will be tried through the republican county districts, and as the democratic cities tried it last year, the advantage will be with the democrats, and they expect this factor alone will reduce the republican vote two or three per cent.

Taking all these things together the situation in this state is considered by impartial observers to be a little more favorable to the democrats than to the republicans. The democrats will have the state legislature, and will have the naming of Senator Hiscok's successor. Of the thirty-four congressmen the democrats have a fair prospect of capturing twenty, while four are sure republicans.

NO TROUBLE ANTICIPATED.

Acting Attorney-General Aldrich interviewed as to His Late Circular.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—In an interview with a representative of the United Press last night Acting Attorney-General Aldrich said in regard to the circular recently issued by him that he did not anticipate any trouble or conflict between the federal and state officers in the enforcement of election laws next Tuesday. The United States officers had been conditioned against doing anything to provoke a controversy, and he had no doubt that state officers had received similar instructions.

"But what about deputy marshals going within the booths?" was asked Mr. Aldrich.

Mr. Aldrich—They are not expected to do so unless necessary in order to discharge some duty imposed on them by the statutes of the United States. When they are called upon to go anywhere about the polls or ballot boxes in the discharge of duty. But ordinarily it will only be necessary that they be outside ready for any emergency that may arise. If they obey instructions, as no deputy marshals are present, they will simply be conductive to good order and a fair election.

"Some question has been raised, Mr. Aldrich, as to the right to appoint deputy marshals except in cities of 30,000 inhabitants."

"Under the United States election statutes the authority is so limited; but Attorney-General Taft held, and I concur in this view, that under the provisions of section 750 of the Revised Statutes the marshal has been conditioned as to the number of his general deputies and that under section 758 they have the same powers as sheriffs and their deputies in each state in matters affecting the peace of the United States, which powers are more specifically defined by sections 2022 and 2024, Revised Statutes, and taken in connection with section 5523, of the Revised Statutes, leave no room for conflict or misapprehension on the part of any federal or state official."

THE HOOSIER STATE CERTAIN

To Disappoint One of Two Very Content Parties.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Nov. 7.—There is a break in the confidence of either republicans or democrats at state headquarters. Both sides express themselves satisfied with the outlook. Chairman Taggart says the democrats will win by 10,000 plurality. Chairman Gandy says the state is republican by from 7,000 to 10,000. Both claim their ability to win on the state ticket and control the next legislature, which has the selection of a United States senator. Both claim that they will have a majority of thirteen congressmen.

In 1888 Harrison carried the state by 5,215 plurality. The democrats say that it was state pride that elected him, and that his absence from the state during the present campaign will wipe out his plurality of four years ago, and give the state to Cleveland. As there are 2,890 election precincts in the state the change of one man in each would overturn Harrison's plurality and there would be no to spare.

It is said that Judge Graham has changed enough votes to give them the victory. They claim that the condition on state issues are about the same as in 1880 when they carried the state by 19,300 for secretary.

Four White Men Killed and Their Bodies Mutilated by Kaki Indians.

TACOMA, Wash., Nov. 6.—The steamer Clifton, sailing yesterday from Alaska, she left Port Wrangle, October 29, and while there it was learned that four white men had been found in the camp at Fort Bailey, Kupreanoff island, with their heads cut off and their bodies stripped from the neck to the waist. The crime is supposed to have been committed by Kaki Indians as an outcome of the Edwards trouble last year, when John Edwards, a miner and explorer, was killed by the natives, who claimed he had been the betrayer of them in some trivial matter. Edwards' friends drove his slayers out of that section of the country, and over since the Indians have vowed vengeance. It is believed that they executed their purpose the first time a small body of white men was found alone.

The bodies of the murdered men were horribly mutilated and could not be identified. In two instances the heads had been cut off, and in one the head had been picked off by a crow. The murdered men were miners.

Shot and Instantly Killed.

CHICAGO, Ill., Nov. 7.—As a result of a misunderstanding in regard to the ownership of some property Anton M. Fougnot, an attorney, was shot and instantly killed, Saturday morning, in his home at Ridgely Park, a suburb of this city, by James Dalton, a manufacturer of piano covers. Both men were married and lived in the same house, each having contributed towards furnishing the home. Dalton claims that Fougnot made it unpleasant for him, and that the shooting was done in self-defense.

Wants to Represent the Whole Church.

LEICESTER, Nov. 7.—Spurgeon's father-in-law was expected yesterday with persons anxious to hear the first sermon preached by the Rev. Dr. Pierson since his return. Dr. Pierson referred only indirectly to the division in the church. He said he was there to represent the whole church, and not part of it, and he asked for the prayers of the whole congregation that his labors might be effective.

Fatal Row Over a Game of Cards.

PATRICK, N. J., Nov. 7.—While playing cards yesterday afternoon at 183 Taylor street, Julius Italiano and Plego Pienozio, two Italians accused each other of cheating. A free fight ensued, during which Pienozio shot and fatally wounded Italiano. Pienozio was arrested. He alleges that he was acting in self-defense, and claims that Italiano drew a knife.

MARINE DISASTER.

The Whaler Ellen Mar Wrecked on an Ice Floe.

THIRTY-FOUR OF HER CREW DROWNED.

The Four Survivors Spent Forty-Eight Hours on the Ice Before Their Signal of Distress is Seen and Heeded.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 7.—News of one of the worst disasters that has happened in the Arctic region for years is brought by the steam whaler Beluga. It tells of the loss of the schooner Ellen Mar, and the drowning of thirty-four men. Only one of the four survivors came here, and he is now in the Marine hospital for treatment. The Ellen Mar was an old, but staunch boat, which sailed from here December 24, last, under Capt. R. O. Thatcher.

On October 6, when in latitude 71 deg. 30 min., the vessel took two whales. The crew were not busy with the catch that they did not observe the swift current carrying them toward a great ice floe, in the center of which was a huge iceberg. When they observed their peril there was no time left to escape a wreck. They got out two boats, but had no time to get into them before the vessel came in contact with the floe.

The vessel was broken to pieces and in five minutes the captain and thirty-three men had perished. Mate Ward, the boat steerer, Anton Pargulino, the cook, Kershaw, and two sailors jumped onto the floe and went adrift. They spent forty-eight hours on the ice before their signal was seen, and they were taken to Unalakpa by a whaler. The sailor Kershaw, and two sailors, were able to be brought down to San Francisco, although the others will probably recover from the exposure.

TO DESTROY THE RECORDS.

Bold Attempt to Burn the Allen County (Ind.) Court House.

FORT WAYNE, Ind., Nov. 7.—Saturday night the janitor discovered this curiously in the circuit court room on fire, and the woodwork must have caught in a moment, as it is of pine and very dry. As the room had not been used for hours and had no light in it, and a half-burned match, still lying on the floor, there is no doubt that the intention was to burn the court house.

Mayor Sollinger has offered $300 reward, and to-day another reward of $1,000 additional will be offered. The ballots for the county election were stored immediately under the court room, and the door leading thereto was not locked last night, the first time in years, the object being, it is thought, to burn the ballots, to interfere with the election. How the fire started is evident from the fact that it is evident the door was used to destroy the county records, which are in evidence of the shortage of ex-Treasurer Isaac Mower.

It Was Simply an Attempt to Destroy the Ballots.

FORT WAYNE, Ind., Nov. 7.—The story of an attempt to burn the court house to destroy the records of the shortage of Mr. Mower is untrue. Mower has been out of office two years and the only controversy about the official record, covering amounts to $100 which he paid two years ago. The fire was started during the meeting of the populists in the courthouse and was an attempt to destroy the ballots stored near by and which could not be replaced in time for election.

THE BEST FOR THE FAMILY.

Reid's German Cough and Kidney Cure is the best remedy for the family because while it can be given to old and young it contains nothing deleterious that will injure anyone. The following letter illustrates this:

ROCKFORD, ILL., May 25, '92.

Sylvan Remedy Co., Peoria, Ill.

GENTLEMEN:—Three months ago my wife was taken sick and cold and a terrible cough. It was afraid it would result seriously as it was just after confinement. Our family doctor gave her medicine but it did her no good, so I bought a bottle of your German Cough and Kidney Cure and gave her two doses. She did not cough once that night, and in the morning, two years old had a cold, and we thought he would have the croup, he had such a hoarse cough. I gave him a half teaspoonful of your remedy and he went right off to sleep and did not cough again all night. He was entirely rid of his cough. I would not be without a bottle of it in my house for any family.

Yours truly,

W. C. WOLFESENBERGER.

Here's What the Plasterers Think of ROCK PLASTER.

WE THE UNDERSIGNED, contracting plasterers, after much experience and observation, take pleasure in testifying to the practical character of ROCK PLASTER, and while it will remove a not inconsiderable amount of business, namely that of patching, we advocate its use, as it enables us to do work and guarantee the results, and enables us to carry on our trade at all seasons of the year, and modernizes that part of building enterprise which has undergone practically no improvement in the last two thousand years, placing the business of the plasterer on the same footing as that occupied by the other trades through the advent of machinery and improved methods.

HEARNEY CARPENTERS, Decatur, Tenn. 4-6

RETURNS AT THE COURT HOUSE.

All of the Bulletins will be Received Tuesday Evening.

The Republican and Democratic managers came to a mutual agreement today about receiving election returns from Macon county and all states of the Union by telegraph Tuesday night, beginning at about 8 o'clock, at the court house in the circuit court room. A wire will be run into the jury room north of the sheriff's office, and a special operator will be placed in charge to receive the full election returns—the same as are received in Chicago, Indianapolis and St. Louis.

Democrats and Republicans will assemble at the court house to hear the returns read. There will be a good reader present to read the bulletins. It is expected that enough bulletins will be received by 12 o'clock to determine the general result.

All are invited to go to the court house Tuesday night.

Band Music and Trouble.

The great Gilmore Band of 100 members arrived in Decatur Sunday morning and gave a second concert at the Grand at 2 p. m., in the presence of a small audience, owing perhaps to the inclement weather and what were considered high prices. The director was Col. D. W. Reeves, who is a worthy successor of the great band-master, but the concert lacked the charm of the presence and personality of the only Gilmore. A superior programme was rendered and every number was rapturously applauded.

The manager of the band got into trouble after the performance. It appears that before Gilmore died Agent Lane came to Decatur and made a conditional contract to send the 100 members of the band the Hotel Long for dinner at a certain rate. Gilmore's death caused a change of agents and plans. The musicians pay their own way and when they came to Decatur 50 went to the St. Nicholas, only four to the Hotel Long and the others to different hotels. Mr. Long had made preparations for the 100 and was disappointed. He made a kick, and securing Attorney J. J. Finn and Deputy Sheriff Mudgett he attached all of the baggage at the depot. Attorney Gray represented the band manager and after considerable parleying Long was paid $30, which including the costs amounted to $33.75. The band manager could not afford to stay in Decatur to fight the case, and he wisely got out of the difficulty with as little expense as possible.

Let Webber Explain.

Speaking of Mr. Palmeyer's determination to vote the Republican ticket, the Decatur Review says Palmeyer is especially friendly to the Republican candidate for state's attorney, and intimates that Mr. I. R. Mills may have been holding back a certain criminal case against Palmeyer for inflicting on the union cigar label. This is a mean attack on Mr. Mills for the purpose of prejudicing cigar makers against him. It is a special dirty work in the interest of Webber.

Now, since this mean insinuation has been made against Mills, let Mr. A. G. Webber explain why he went to Mr. Palmeyer and tried to convince him that he ought to vote for him (Webber) by stating to Palmeyer that if he (Palmeyer) would come to his office he would convince him that the Republicans, instead of the Democrats, passed the law making it a crime to infringe on the union label, and that, as the Republicans made the law, they, and not the Democrats, were to blame for the trouble he had been put to for that infringement. Is Mr. Webber opposed to the law, or was he trying to deceive Palmeyer? In other words, is Mr. Webber carrying two faces in order to get votes, in this matter as he has been doing in other directions?

Be sure and vote early.

BLOOD ON THE MOON

Increasing Prospects for a Row in Kansas City.

BOTH PARTIES WILLFULLY STUBBORN

And Determined to Carry Out Orders Though Certain of a Sanguinary Outcome—Trouble or a Back-down Certain.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Nov. 7.—The events of yesterday have materially increased the prospects of bloodshed to-morrow. The firm determination of the republican authorities to place the federal deputy marshals inside the voting booths on election day has aroused the democracy. It will be met with an equally firm determination on the part of the democratic county and city authorities to resist federal interference. No federal supervisor has been appointed here, and on this Judge Brewer's decision that the deputies could not legally occupy the voting booths, the democrats base their resistance to the presence of federal deputies in the voting places.

Chairman Middlebrook, of the republican county committee, called a meeting of the republican county committee, called a meeting of the republican judges and clerks of election and instructed them to allow the federal deputies to be present, and urged that force be employed if necessary.

Recorder of Voters Orsley will to-day instruct the judges and clerks that the deputies have no rights beyond those of ordinary officers as to presence in the place of voting. The board of police commissioners has given instructions to the police to arrest federal deputies, and has issued a call to 170 of the most prominent citizens of the city inviting them to volunteer their services on election day to preserve the peace.

THE DISCONTENTED.

CHICAGO, Nov. 7.—Yesterday was the thirtieth anniversary of the Chicago riot. Thirty-five hundred people stood in a cold, drizzling rain at Waldheim cemetery, and paid tribute with speech and song to the memory of "the martyrs" bomb-throwers, strewing flowers on the graves of the five men who were condemned by law for their participation in the Haymarket riot—August Spies, George Engel, Albert Parsons, Adolph Fischer and Louis Lingg. Quiet earnestness and enthusiasm and general good order characterized the celebration of the men and women who dedicated to the world a monument that is to mark the graves of those who five years ago paid the penalty of their crime with their lives.

There were two features of the day's exercises, a parade in the city and the ceremonies at the cemetery. The labor organizations that were to participate gathered at the Haymarket square at 11:30 o'clock in the morning, but it was noon before the procession moved. Fifteen hundred men and women were in the city and as they marched to the Grand Central depot, accompanied by bands playing the "Marseillaise" and the "Dead March in Saut" they were watched with interest by many who had stationed themselves on the sidewalks along the route.

At the station two special trains awaited to convey the crowd to the cemetery, where the graves were lavishly decorated. On the top of the monument which marks the burial place of the five men was placed a floral garland from the arm of which were suspended by ropes of silk, five crimson roses "Murdered, but not Dead." was the inscription, set in carvations on the pedestal were Spies, Engel, Parsons, Fischer and Lingg.

No red flags were displayed in the demonstration, but all of the floral emblems bore red streamers and the color prevailed everywhere in badges and buttonholes.

CHARLES EYMAN AT REST.

Burial in Hill Cemetery—Large Attendance of Friends.

The funeral of the late Charles W.
Eymann, aged 27 years, who was accidentally killed Saturday morning at the Lyon & Armstrong planing mill by having a broken stick driven through his body, took place yesterday from the Congregational church near Warrensburg.
There was a very large attendance of friends of the family, including Miss Charlotte Graham, of Kansas City, Mo., who was to have become the wife of the deceased next Christmas. She arrived at Warrensburg just in time to attend the funeral of her betrothed. The engagement was made while Mr. Eymann was employed at Kansas City. Upon the occasion were many floral offerings of massive design. Rev. Runnels conducted the impressive service and the church choir furnished the music. The interment was in the Hill cemetery. James Taggart, George Bunker, Will Schroeder, Bart Berman, John Burns and T. S. Childs were the pallbearers. The Lyon & Armstrong was closed yesterday and the proprietors and employees attended the funeral in a body, six carriages going to Warrensburg from Decatur.

Mrs. Selma Eymann, mother of the deceased, and members of the family, return their grateful thanks to Decatur and Warrensburg friends for their kindly sympathy and aid during their time of deep sorrow.

The deceased was a man of exemplary character. He was industrious and provident. He possessed great courage and often sacrificed his own comfort and has endangered his life for the safety of others. He displayed courage and grit in pulling the bloody stick from his body when he was pierced through with the piece of wood, and once while out in Kansas with a party of Warrensburg young men digging a well he displayed his courage. The well was nearly 90 feet deep.
He was at the top operating the windlass.
There was a man at the bottom of the well. Eymann was pulling to the top a bucketful of earth and stones. He was watching a number of coyotes snapping about, and accidentally lost control of the handle of the windlass for a moment. The flying handle struck him on the head, making a great gash. Partly stunned as he was, Eymann remembered that a life was in danger at the bottom of the well. With the courage of a lion he flew to the flying handle and caught it with both hands, at imminent danger of his own life, and while the blood was streaming down his face and body from the cut on his forehead, he stopped the downward flight of the bucket and averted a catastrophe. He was nearly exhausted when friends who heard his cries for help came to his assistance.

ing Held Last Night.

Mayor Chambers was present at the meeting of the city council last night, and no more all of the afternoon.
John Inboden's plan of his Second addition was presented and referred to the public improvement committee, as was also the petition for a lateral sewer in the alley between North Morgan and Broadway, running south from Cerro Gordo street. The application for a sewer in the alley between Monroe and College streets from King to Green street was referred.

The engineer at the water works reported that 60,000,000 gallons of water had been pumped during the month of October. The report was placed on file.
Supt. Park reported that his pay roll for October amounted to $1,908. The amount of lumber expended was $4,000 last. Received and placed on file.

The water and light committee reported having received bids for the construction of a filter house and had found the bid of Thomas Antrim the lowest. His bid was $7,200 and the committee recommended that it be accepted. The report was adopted.

City Engineer Burgess made reports on the street paving on Broadway, Franklin and Washington streets, all of which were referred to the Public Improvement committee.

The report was referred to the Finance committee.

Ald. Montgomery, Shade and Read were appointed a special committee to report on the proposition to lease the new court house basement for the city department.

On motion of Ald. Shade the council decided to extend the Broadway sewer on Hickory street three blocks.

It was stated that the new electric light company was willing to accept the ordinance given the Platt company, leaving out the provision that the company give 100 lights free to the city.
Nothing done.

By Watkins: That a crossing be placed at the intersection of Division and Broadway streets, and also at the intersection of Division and Warren streets. Adopted.

By Cops and Bramble: That the street superintendent grade a sidewalk on the west side of Hawthorn avenue, between Union and Wood streets. Adopted.

By Ferguson: That steps be taken to compel the Electric Railway Company to run their cars to the terminus of the line on North Broadway, and that the proper officers notify said railway to comply strictly with the ordinance, and also that they immediately commence the work of paving said track on Division street to and from Broadway. Adopted.

By Montgomery: That the city marshal be instructed to call on the Decatur Gas and Coke company and order them to at-once remove the electric light pole at Swearingen & Tyler's corner, and that Mr. Sampson, the sewer inspector, be ordered to put in a proper inlet of sufficient size and so constructed to carry off the water.

By Montgomery: That the mayor name a committee of three to examine the basement floor of the new court house and see if suitable rooms for the city council and all of its officers can be arranged in same; and if so get a proposition from the county board giving terms on a ten-year lease. Adopted.

Bids on a sewer from Colfax to Broadway were read as follows: S. A. Tuttle, $4.18 per foot. Henry Ammann, $1.028.
The bids were referred to the public improvement committee to report at once.
The committee reported in favor of Mr.
Ammann and the report was adopted.

"Uncle Josh."
Friday night the "Uncle Sprucey" company will appear at the Grand
Said an exchange:

Uncle Josh Sprucey was greeted with a good house last night. From the rise to the fall of the curtain there was a constant flow of laughter, applause and pleasure for every auditor of the City Opera House. Josh, as a New England farmer, did his part to perfection, and while supported by such a company as he is, merits all the praises and applauses that he received during the performance last evening. The play was a most thrilling one, and the scenes and mechanical effects were very impressive.
The saw mill scene was a striking one and the special features were given in such a manner that exhibited ability on the part of the performers. The company taken as a whole is a grand one, and its visit to Decatur was one that brought much pleasure to our theatergoers.

THE ELECTION.

There is marked activity in Decatur to-day in voting at the polls in the election districts in Decatur. Every polling place is crowded, and up to 2:30 p. m. the vote indicated that all but about a thousand of those who had registered had voted. The vote is as follows by districts up to 2:30 p. m. the first column showing the vote cast to-day and the second column the total registration.

District	Today	Total
First	402	402
Second	402	402
Third	402	402
Fourth	402	402
Fifth	402	402
Sixth	402	402
Seventh	402	402
Eighth	402	402
Ninth	402	402
Tenth	402	402
Eleventh	402	402
Twelfth	402	402

The weather is perfect. A number of ladies have voted. There has been no disturbance at the polls anywhere and no complaint except in the first, ninth and a few other districts where, owing to the large number of voters, the voting. Democratic challengers make trouble in requiring every Republican about whom there is the least doubt to swear in his honesty and integrity.

The returns will be announced to-night at the court house. They ought to be known as early as 10 o'clock.
No news from New York or other states.

A Campaign Bet.
A bet was made at the court house last evening, November 7, 1892, and in due form of law on his own personal application he was made a citizen of the United States. The record can be found on page 156, case No. 803. In his petition Mr. Webster made oath that he is a native of Wurtemberg, Germany, and has lived in America 25 years. He usually renounced his allegiance to the King of Wurtemberg and the Emperor of Germany, and when the papers were properly made out Mr. Webster came out of the office an American citizen, at least qualified to hold an office, if he can get it.

The act of Mr. Webster in delaying until such a late day in qualifying himself as a citizen will occasion more or less surprise in the community, and no doubt in the minds of many the question will naturally arise, Is Altyed a natural citizen? Perhaps he, too, qualified in Chicago yesterday.

THE LEONARD ACADEMY.
Decatur Society Out to Enjoy Music and Dancing.
A large representation of Decatur's 400 attended the opening of Prof. Leonard's Dancing Academy at Abbott's Hall last night. It was a brilliant event and a thoroughly enjoyable affair. The handsome hall, filled in with the new barbed wire floor, smooth as glass, was properly decorated, and the dancing began when the doors were opened in the evening. Prof. Leonard gave his invited guests a gift-edged concert by Goodman's full brass band, followed by a vocal selection, "Gaily I Chant," by Mrs. Charles H. Cassel, daughter of the Professor, with Miss Thomas as accompanist on the piano organ. The following the dance, which continued until 12 o'clock, with the Professor as prompter. The grand promenade. During the evening Miss Marie Leonard in costume gave a grand Spanish dance, and for the actors reported with the Highland fling. The Decatur Polka Minuet, composed for the occasion by the Professor, was danced by Misses Currie and Marie Leonard, who captivated the company by their grace and art. The World's Fair Quartette, with other people in a set, was another pleasing feature of the evening.

It was announced that the Leonard Academy parties will begin for the season on Tuesday evening Nov. 17th. The parties for men and women will be Wednesday night of each week. Saturday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock Professor Leonard will be at the Academy to receive the names of children who may desire to join a class in instruction. It is understood that Mrs. Sadewick's former class of advanced pupils will have dancing parties at the Leonard academy every Friday night.

The Soda Water Season Open.
Soda water fountains are blossoming out all over the east side for the summer season. There seems to be more soda water drunk there than anywhere else in the city. Prices are one, two and three cents a glass. The highest price is for a new flavor which seems to be fashionable on the east side, though the old style is still popular elsewhere. It is supplied in different ways, but the usual spelling seems to be "Armatianese rose." This is the costliest flavor that there is. Another popular flavor, which sells for only two cents, is "Armatianese," according to the soda water spelling.—New York Sun.

A Seventy-Five Foot Dive.
At Arctic Springs Floyd Williams, a twenty-year-old boy, climbed a tower twenty-five feet high, and reaching the last turret, dived off into the river. The descent was made in safety, and the boy after coming to the surface swam around for several minutes. It was regarded as a marvellous feat. The tower was built especially for Professor Leary, the famous diver, who gave an exhibition on Sunday by diving from the top, and who was said to be considered the only man in the United States able to dive safely from such a distance.—Cor. Indianapolis Journal.

During the evening Miss Marie Leonard in costume gave a grand Spanish dance, and for the actors reported with the Highland fling. The Decatur Polka Minuet, composed for the occasion by the Professor, was danced by Misses Currie and Marie Leonard, who captivated the company by their grace and art. The World's Fair Quartette, with other people in a set, was another pleasing feature of the evening.

It was announced that the Leonard Academy parties will begin for the season on Tuesday evening Nov. 17th. The parties for men and women will be Wednesday night of each week. Saturday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock Professor Leonard will be at the Academy to receive the names of children who may desire to join a class in instruction. It is understood that Mrs. Sadewick's former class of advanced pupils will have dancing parties at the Leonard academy every Friday night.

The Soda Water Season Open.
Soda water fountains are blossoming out all over the east side for the summer season. There seems to be more soda water drunk there than anywhere else in the city. Prices are one, two and three cents a glass. The highest price is for a new flavor which seems to be fashionable on the east side, though the old style is still popular elsewhere. It is supplied in different ways, but the usual spelling seems to be "Armatianese rose." This is the costliest flavor that there is. Another popular flavor, which sells for only two cents, is "Armatianese," according to the soda water spelling.—New York Sun.

A Seventy-Five Foot Dive.
At Arctic Springs Floyd Williams, a twenty-year-old boy, climbed a tower twenty-five feet high, and reaching the last turret, dived off into the river. The descent was made in safety, and the boy after coming to the surface swam around for several minutes. It was regarded as a marvellous feat. The tower was built especially for Professor Leary, the famous diver, who gave an exhibition on Sunday by diving from the top, and who was said to be considered the only man in the United States able to dive safely from such a distance.—Cor. THE ELECTION.

There is marked activity in Decatur to-day in voting at the polls in the election districts in Decatur. Every polling place is crowded, and up to 2:30 p. m. the vote indicated that all but about a thousand of those who had registered had voted. The vote is as follows by districts up to 2:30 p. m. the first column showing the vote cast to-day and the second column the total registration.

District	Today	Total
First	402	402
Second	402	402
Third	402	402
Fourth	402	402
Fifth	402	402
Sixth	402	402
Seventh	402	402
Eighth	402	402
Ninth	402	402
Tenth	402	402
Eleventh	402	402
Twelfth	402	402

The weather is perfect. A number of ladies have voted. There has been no disturbance at the polls anywhere and no complaint except in the first, ninth and a few other districts where, owing to the large number of voters, the voting. Democratic challengers make trouble in requiring every Republican about whom there is the least doubt to swear in his honesty and integrity.

The returns will be announced to-night at the court house. They ought to be known as early as 10 o'clock.
No news from New York or other states.

A Campaign Bet.
A bet was made at the court house last evening, November 7, 1892, and in due form of law on his own personal application he was made a citizen of the United States. The record can be found on page 156, case No. 803. In his petition Mr. Webster made oath that he is a native of Wurtemberg, Germany, and has lived in America 25 years. He usually renounced his allegiance to the King of Wurtemberg and the Emperor of Germany, and when the papers were properly made out Mr. Webster came out of the office an American citizen, at least qualified to hold an office, if he can get it.

The act of Mr. Webster in delaying until such a late day in qualifying himself as a citizen will occasion more or less surprise in the community, and no doubt in the minds of many the question will naturally arise, Is Altyed a natural citizen? Perhaps he, too, qualified in Chicago yesterday.

THE LEONARD ACADEMY.
Decatur Society Out to Enjoy Music and Dancing.
A large representation of Decatur's 400 attended the opening of Prof. Leonard's Dancing Academy at Abbott's Hall last night. It was a brilliant event and a thoroughly enjoyable affair. The handsome hall, filled in with the new barbed wire floor, smooth as glass, was properly decorated, and the dancing began when the doors were opened in the evening. Prof. Leonard gave his invited guests a gift-edged concert by Goodman's full brass band, followed by a vocal selection, "Gaily I Chant," by Mrs. Charles H. Cassel, daughter of the Professor, with Miss Thomas as accompanist on the piano organ. The following the dance, which continued until 12 o'clock, with the Professor as prompter. The grand promenade.
